Ref: G.O.No.Ms.87/, dated 29-1-1948.

In accordance with the instructions issued by Government in the last para of the G.O.cited above, the question of designing a suitable mechanical drier for par-boiled paddy has been examined by the Engineer Designer of this Department in consultation with the Agricultural Research Engineer, Coimbatore. Some preliminary trials were first conducted by the Engineer Designer at the Agricultural Research Station, Coimbatore, in the drying of par-boiled paddy and a design for a drier has been worked out. The cost of fabricating a drier has also been worked out and it is estimated that it will come to about Rs.1,600/- Orders of Government sanctioning the expenditure are requested. Meanwhile in anticipation of Government orders, the Engineer Designer has taken up the work of fabrication of a drier as designed by him. As soon as the drier is completed, necessary trials will be conducted and a further report sent to Government, after three months.
